From our family to yours, we offer an extremely safe, completely insured equine experience.

Cassandra has over 35 years of equine and child care experience, offering an educational and fun experience is second nature to her. Working for the YMCA directing summer camp operations for over 15 years, her passion for teaching and children is second to none. Plus, she has two young daughters that help keep her "head in the game!"

Rest assured, your child will have the time of their life exploring the awesome world of horses and learning about themselves in the process! There is really no better way to help build self confidence and self-esteem!

Children will learn

- Basic riding skills
- Horse care and handling skills
- Self esteem, and team work,
- A sincere appreciation for the outdoors and animal husbandry!
